

ServSafe Alcohol Program Roll-Out Guidelines:

Hawaii

THE SERVSAFE ALCOHOL™ PROGRAM IS NOT APPROVED FOR USE IN HAWAII.

Sales and service of alcohol in Hawaii are regulated at the county level. Each island/county has its own training requirements, as follows:

❖ City and County of Honolulu

Honolulu Liquor Commission
Pacific Park Plaza
711 Kapiolani Boulevard, Suite 600
Honolulu, Hawaii 96813-5249
Phone: 808-768-7300
Fax: 808-768-7311
Email: liquor@honolulu.gov
Website: <http://www.honolulu.gov/liq/>

For restaurant licensees, managers and bartenders are required to register with the commission, and to successfully complete the alcohol server training program given by the commission. Certification is valid for four years.

A bartender may be issued a certificate of registration for another licensed establishment without retaking the server education course if the bartender had successfully completed the server education course within the past four years.

The Rules of the Honolulu Liquor Commission can be viewed on the Web at:

Licensees must be familiar with the liquor laws of Hawaii and the rules of the Kauai County Liquor Control Commission. A license will not be issued or renewed unless the commission is satisfied that a licensee is familiar with the above laws. Licensees must also ensure that the employees of their establishment are familiar with these same laws, as follows:

- All licensees must have a copy of the liquor laws of Hawaii and the rules of the Liquor Control Commission available on the premises at all times.
- A manager of an on-premise establishment must successfully pass an exam from the county on the liquor laws and rules and regulations of the Commission.
- Upon Commission approval, the manager will be issued a blue card that is valid for five years.
- A manager must have a valid blue card before being employed as a manager of an establishment.
- A licensee must register the employment of a manager with the commission by submitting a notice of employment of the person.
- All licensees must submit a list of all management personnel, on forms provided by the Commission, to the Commission by July 31 of each year.
