

Program Roll-Out Guidelines: WISCONSIN

In Wisconsin, responsible alcohol service training is mandatory. Applicants for an operator's license must have completed a responsible alcohol service training program. ServSafe Alcohol® is an approved program in Wisconsin. There are some exceptions which can be found at www.dor.state.wi.us.

In order to teach the ServSafe Alcohol course in the State of Wisconsin, you must:

- Be an approved ServSafe Alcohol Instructor
- Obtain the Wisconsin Supplement from your ServSafe Alcohol instructor or via the content within the WI SSA Online Course.
- Teach the ServSafe Alcohol curriculum along with the Wisconsin Supplement
- Give the ServSafe Alcohol Exam and the Wisconsin Exam. Return answer sheets to the National Restaurant Association for grading.

Contact Neacia Pacheco at the Wisconsin Restaurant Association for more information on the Wisconsin components (npacheco@wirestaurant.org or 608-270-9950).
