

Nebraska

In Nebraska, responsible alcohol service training is voluntary. ServSafe Alcohol™ program is an approved training course for the City of Lincoln and fulfills the requirements for servers/sellers. The Nebraska supplement must be incorporated into the ServSafe Alcohol training. Approved ServSafe Alcohol instructors can download the Nebraska supplement at www.servsafe.com.

However, all alcohol servers and/or sellers in Lincoln, Nebraska are required to obtain a server/seller permit.

Once a server/seller has completed the ServSafe Alcohol course, they should simply sign on to the City of Lincoln website to complete the exam on city alcohol laws and apply for a permit. *

*In addition to the above server/seller permit, the city of Lincoln, Nebraska also requires at least one facility manager complete an onsite training session with a Lincoln police officer.
